CYF Mid-Winter Retreat

Join us the weekend of February 24th for some of Barb's fabulous food, Wacky Olympics, and reflection upon our role in the Christian community. Johnny Wray will be with us for the weekend to keynote. Don't forget to bring: close toed shoes, bedding, and your bible. Check in will begin at 8 PM on Friday night, dinner will not be provided the first night.

Disciples of Christ: "A movement for wholeness in a fragmented world."

Our overall theme this year is identity. In order to live out our faith we must first understand who we are as Disciples of Christ. We must learn how we fit into the Christian community and finally we must learn how to respect others despite our differences in religion.
